	Certification Agreement

The certification shall remain valid only while the Client continues to meet the applicable certification requirements.

2.1 Certification Documents: following a positive certification decision, BVSPS shall issue a certificate specifying, as applicable:

- Name and address of the certified organization;
- Certified sites and locations;
- Scope of certification;
- Applicable standard or normative document;
- Certificate number;
- Effective date;
- Certification cycle and validity period; and
- Other information required by applicable certification or accreditation requirements.

2.3 Use of Certification Marks and Certification Claims: The Client may use the BVSPS certification mark and make reference to its certification only in accordance with the Rules for Use of Certification Marks and Certification Claims published or otherwise communicated by ARPL (Certification Division).

The Client shall ensure that its certification claims:

- a. Accurately represent the certified scope;
- b. Do not imply that ARPL (Certification Division) has certified a product, service or process where the certification relates only to the management system;
- c. Are not used in a manner that may mislead customers, regulators or other interested parties; and
- d. Are discontinued or appropriately amended when certification is suspended, withdrawn, expired, or its scope is reduced.
- e. The applicable requirements for the use of certification marks and certification claims are available on the BVSPS website and shall be accessible to the Client.

2.4 Surveillance Audits: Where applicable, the Client shall undergo periodic surveillance audits during the certification cycle. Surveillance audits shall be conducted at intervals and in accordance with the applicable certification programme.

2.5 Recertification Audits: Before expiry of the certification cycle, the Client shall undergo a recertification audit in accordance with the applicable certification requirements. Successful completion of the recertification process and a positive certification decision shall be required for continuation of certification into a subsequent certification cycle.

2.6 The Client shall promptly notify BVSPS of any significant changes that may affect the certification, including changes to:

- Legal or organizational status;
- Ownership or management;
- Certified sites;

- Scope of activities;
- Management system;
- Processes or operations;
- Contact details; or
- Other matters relevant to the certification.

2.7 Suspension, Withdrawal and Reduction of Scope: BVSPS may suspend, withdraw, or reduce the scope of certification where the Client fails to meet applicable certification requirements or the conditions established for maintaining certification. During suspension, the Client shall not represent or advertise itself as being certified for the suspended scope. Upon withdrawal or expiry of certification, the Client shall discontinue all references to certification and cease use of the certification mark in accordance with BVSPS applicable rules.

ARTICLE III – GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1 Impartiality: BVSPS shall conduct certification activities impartially and shall manage actual and potential conflicts of interest in accordance with its documented procedures.

3.2 Confidentiality: BVSPS shall maintain the confidentiality of information obtained during certification activities, except where disclosure is required by law, accreditation requirements, certification scheme requirements, or is otherwise authorized by the Client.

Information regarding the Client obtained from sources other than the Client shall also be treated as confidential in accordance with applicable procedures.

3.3 Publicly Available Information: The Client acknowledges that certain information relating to the certification process is publicly available through the BVSPS website.

3.4 Complaints and Appeals: The Client has the right to submit complaints and appeals concerning BVSPS 's certification activities. Submission of a complaint or appeal shall not, by itself, affect the Client's certification status unless otherwise determined in accordance with the applicable procedure.

3.5 Record: The Client shall maintain appropriate records and documented information demonstrating continued conformity with the applicable certification requirements.

3.6 Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the applicable laws of India. Any dispute arising from this Agreement shall be addressed in accordance with the dispute-resolution provisions agreed between BVSPS and the Client.

3.7 Acceptance: By signing this Agreement, the Client confirms that it has understood and accepted the requirements contained in this Agreement and agrees to comply with the applicable certification requirements throughout the certification cycle.

This Certification Agreement shall remain valid for a period of one (1) month from the date of signing by both parties, unless otherwise extended or terminated in writing by mutual agreement.
